Mr Terrance Barton Chairman Hollow Angling Society

Sadly earlier yesterday after trying to contact Terry for 36hrs and unfit to drive myself I had to call the police to his house.
On entering our Chairman was found to have passed away.

Terry was one of our founders having got together with a few friends to take on the running of the Hollow Ponds at Leyton
In the early days with brother-in-law Colin Read and others he spent many hours patrolling the "Hollows" turning it from a rubbish strewn trouble area into a very well-run tidy fishery, giving the Society a good start in life.

Since then he has continually been an active member of the managing team having covered every position on the committee at some point.
As Secretary for the last 13 years I have had unceasing support from Terry as Chairman and for several years as Treasurer and recently Membership sec

All the members of the Society management team offer their deepest sympathy to his Wife and Family

As and when further information occurs I will put out another communication

R.I.P. TERRANCE BARTON
